

Thursday 24th November 2011

You are invited to

FREE dyslexia events led by Dr Kate Saunders and Margaret Malpas

British Dyslexia Association

Sponsored by the SpLD Trust

Presentation 1: 3.30 for 3.45 start - until 5.15 pm : for teachers and TAs

“How dyslexics learn and how to make your school dyslexia friendly”

Dr. Kate Saunders

Presentation 2: 7 - 9 pm : for parents/carers of dyslexic children

“Dyslexia explained and how to support your dyslexic child”

Dr Kate Saunders and Margaret Malpas (BDA Joint Chair)

Dr. Kate Saunders is the Chief Executive Officer of the British Dyslexia Association. Kate has over 20 years of experience in the field of dyslexia and SEN, having worked as a Senior SpLD/Dyslexia Advisory Teacher, SENCO, chartered psychologist and lecturer. Kate has a Ph.D. in Education and is co-author of 'How Dyslexics Learn', published by PATOSS.

Jonty Hearnden, whose twin sons are dyslexic, will also be present to talk about his experiences. Jonty is an independent furniture dealer, runs a successful antiques business and is a regular expert on BBC1's 'Cash in The Attic'.

Opportunity to view, compare and buy products from SEN suppliers:
Crossbow Education - lansyst - SEN Marketing

Venue: The Courtyard, Reeves Way, Peterborough, PE1 5LG

We need to know numbers in advance please, as places are limited.

Please book your FREE place by contacting:

Pam Tomalin (Peterborough Dyslexia Association)

Telephone: 01327 703626 (Mob: 07976 430959) E-mail: pamelat@live.co.uk